Responds to community need resulting from COVID-19	It has been identified there are a lack of events/trading over the weekend within the town, by conversations with members of the local community. The Covid crisis had already created a sense of isolation for many individuals and the opportunity to utilize an area of the town, to promote community engagement and bring a sense of enjoyment was an important one. The community will benefit by being apart of a local event, organized by locals for locals, who are passionate about community inclusion and collaborating with local business to promote the town to the wider community. The community also are given a sense of responsibility by voting on the best Stallholder during the Market, which thus creates further engagement between Vendors and the Attendees.

The inaugural twilight markets hosted by the Avon Valley Creators Collective proved they are capable of running a community event at a highly professional level.
